

Siemens Gamesa - SG Training Web

SE-P-50710

GWO Service Lift User

Purpose

The overall aim of the course is: *To enable the participant to use and operate any lift model in a WTG correctly and safely *To enable participants gain knowledge of multiple guiding systems and lift types in a WTG *To make participants perform necessary pre-use inspections and emergency actions with the help of User manual

Who should attend?

The course is intended for participants who is actively working in WTG with active use of lift

Objectives

Upon completion of the course the participants must be able to:

- Perform lift operations correctly and safely
- Explain the multiple guiding systems and lift types in a WTG
- Perform necessary pre-use inspection and emergency actions with the help of lift User manual.

Qualification / Competencies:

Upon completion of the course the participants have obtained the following competencies:

- Able to use and operate TG lift (respective of model) correctly and safely
- Able to show knowledge in multiple guiding system and lift types in WTG
- Perform the necessary pre-use inspections and emergency actions with the help of lift user manual

Notes

Press this link; The overview shows all the service lift models covered by GWO Service Lift User Guide.

Export control

AL-Number: N

ECCN: EAR99